Guerrilla Activities in Kwangsi

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

1. In early May the 33 Guerrilla Army commander HSU Wei-wei (徐威衛) led 350 of his men in an attack on Chinese Communist warehouses at Sanchiaotsui, near Wuchou (119-19, 23-28). HSU was wounded in the foot and captured by the Communists; however, his troops are still active.1
2. On 5 May 5,000 men under HUANG K'un-shan (黃崑山), CHUNG Jih-shan (鍾日山), and LU Erh-fu (陸國福) in west Kwangsi occupied T'ienhsi Hsien (106-05, 24-26) and captured a large amount of Communist supplies. On 15 May 5,000 Communist troops arrived from Nanning but HUANG's unit had withdrawn after burning all warehouses in the area.
3. On 7 May guerrillas under LU Ming (陸明) in the area north of Nanning attacked Nama (108-04, 23-38), killing 56 persons and capturing 30 Communist troops. Guerrillas in Nama, Lungshan (108-15, 23-50), and Wuming (108-15, 23-50) have resumed their activities.
4. During May guerrillas in the Yulin area, P'ANG Chi-shan's (龐積善) division of YANG Shou-ts'ai's (楊受才) 32 Army, occupied Hsingyeh Hsien (109-56, 22-49). They broke into the hsien government prison, released all prisoners and captured or killed 32 Communist troops.
5. In west Kwangsi, Hsailung (105-27, 24-42), Hsailin (105-38, 24-44), Loyeh (106-24, 24-51), and T'ienso (107-02, 25-09) Hsien have been freed from Chinese Communists. A regular Nationalist regiment is still intact in the area as are some guerrillas.

Comment. A Hong Kong press dispatch reported that HSU was captured in the Communist east Kwangsi guerrilla suppression campaign of May.
